²⁶ And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ²⁷ “Also the tenth day of this seventh month shall be the Day of Atonement. It shall be a holy convocation for you; you shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire to the LORD. ²⁸ And you shall do no work on that same day, for it is the Day of Atonement, to make atonement for you before the LORD your God. ²⁹ For any person who is not afflicted in soul on that same day shall be cut off from his people. ³⁰ And any person who does any work on that same day, that person I will destroy from among his people. ³¹ You shall do no manner of work; it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings. ³² It shall be to you a sabbath of solemn rest, and you shall afflict your souls; on the ninth day of the month at evening, from evening to evening, you shall celebrate your sabbath.”

In the Days of the Tabernacle of Moses

The Feast of Atonement – Chapter 16

1. The High Priest removed his regular garments
2. Washed himself in the laver
3. Enter the Holy Place
4. Put on special linen garments – Lev 16:4

Leviticus 16:6,11,12-14

5. The High Priest goes out to sacrifice a bull at the altar of burnt offering for himself and the other priests – Lev 16:6
6. He then entered the Holy of Holies for the first time with some of the bull's blood, along with incense and coals from the altar. The smoke from the burning incense hid the Ark of the Covenant from view as he sprinkled the blood seven times on and in front of the Mercy Seat covering the Ark and the Holy Place – Lev 16:12-14

Sin Offering

7. He then went outside the Tabernacle and cast lots for two goats to see which one was to be sacrificed. A scarlet ribbon was tied to each goat's horn – Lev 16:7-8
8. At the altar, he killed the goat as a sin offering for the people and, for a second time, entered the Holy of Holies to sprinkle the blood in front of and on the Mercy Seat – Lev 16:15-16

Sprinkling of blood of the bull and goat

9. He then went outside to the altar of burnt offering and sprinkled seven times—with the blood of the bull for himself and the blood of the goat for the people – Lev 16:18-19

The Scapegoat

10. While in the courtyard, he laid both hands on the second goat, thus symbolizing the transfer of Israel's sin, and sent it away into the wilderness – Lev 16:20-22
11. The high priest then entered the Holy Place, removed his special garments, bathed, and put on his regular, ornate garments – Lev 16:23-24
12. As a final sacrifice, he offered a ram for himself and another ram for the people (burnt offering) – Lev 16:24

Yeshua – Abba Father's Sin Offering for us

The law is only a shadow of the good things that are coming—not the realities themselves. For this reason it can never, by the same sacrifices repeated endlessly year after year, make perfect those who draw near to worship. ² Otherwise, would they not have stopped being offered? For the worshipers would have been cleansed once for all, and would no longer have felt guilty for their sins. ³ But those sacrifices are an annual reminder of sins. ⁴ It is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins. – Hebrews 10:1-3

From the Second Temple Era-Talmudic Influence

- The priests tie a scarlet thread on the horn of the two goats
- The scarlet thread on the Scapegoat turned white as it was taken out to the wilderness
- The scarlet thread from the sacrificed goat hung on the temple door turned white
- However, forty years before the destruction of the Temple in AD 70, the scarlet thread remained red
- Why?

Yom Kippur Today

- After the destruction of the Second Temple
- No Temple – No sacrifices
- Yohanan ben Zakkai, a first-century Jewish leader declared that God no longer desired blood sacrifices, replaced by:
 - Repentance
 - Charity and good work
 - Prayer
- Yom Kippur transformed into a day of introspection, prayer and fasting
- Fasting from sundown like in the days of Jonah (Nineveh)

Yeshua Atones for our Sins – In the Future

For Christ did not enter a holy place made with hands, a mere copy of the true one, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us; ²⁵ nor was it that He would offer Himself often, as the high priest enters the holy place year by year with blood that is not his own. ²⁶ Otherwise, He would have needed to suffer often since the foundation of the world; but now once at the consummation of the ages He has been manifested to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself. ²⁷ And inasmuch as it is appointed for men to die once and after this comes judgment, ²⁸ so Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time for salvation without reference to sin, to those who eagerly await Him.
